

GOVERNOR ROBERT F. BRADFORD signs House Bill 201 (Chap. 353 Acts of 1947). The Bill sponsored by Representative Rawson of Newton changes the requirement for an election recount from 1% to 1/2 of 1%. Shown (left to right) are Representative Henry W. Pickford of Clinton, Town Clerk Arthur J. Shinners of Brookline, Governor Bradford and Representative George E. Rawson.

$32.00 Tax Rate Highest in History of City

The Newton Tax Rate for 1947, as announced by the Board of Assessors, will be $32 per $1,000 valuation, which is an increase over the 1946 tax rate of $32 and the highest rate in the history of the city.

The use of funds from the city's surplus to offset increased budget figures, including salary raises and an accelerated program of public works, kept the tax rate from going even higher. The amount of surplus funds applied to taxes was $252,378.98 from Surplus Available and $381,687.15 from the Water Department. The upward revision in the estimated receipts from income and corporation taxes announced by State Tax Commissioner Long, was also a factor in keeping the rate from going still higher.

Governor Signs Representative Rawson's State Recount Bill

Cuts Plurality from 1% to 1/2 of 1% to Entitle Recount

Governor Robert F. Bradford has signed House Bill No. 201, introduced by Rep. George E. Rawson of Newton. This act, now known as Chapter 353 of the Acts of 1947, provides that a state-wide recount of votes in our election shall not be made on behalf of any candidate for governor, lieutenant governor, secretary, treasurer, auditor, attorney general or U. S. Senator whose total of votes is more than half of 1 per cent less than that of the winning candidate.

It repeals a previous law under which a losing candidate could leave a recount if he was not more than 1 per cent behind the winner. This gave rise to numerous recounts for state-wide offices which cost the Commonwealth and the cities and towns large amounts of money, and yet have never unseated a winning candidate. The most expensive of all was the Kelley-Barnes recount for attorney general in 1944. The original law was passed when there were about 1,000,000 voters

The War Against Fire Intensifies

In a recent address, W. E. Mallalieu, general manager of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, observed that the war against fire has made great progress. Thousands of lives and enormous sums in property values have been saved by organized prevention work. But this is not enough. Fire waste is inexcusably high.

There are now more than 800,000 fires each year in this country. Our dollar fire loss is at an all-time record level. If the present rate of increase is maintained, this loss will reach the shocking figure of $1,000,000,000 a year by 1950.

Mr. Mallalieu spoke of what has been accomplished in dealing with other menaces to human life and welfare. Diphtheria took a toll of 125 lives for each 100,000 of the population in 1885—in 1945 it took but 1.2. In 1885 typhoid accounted for 50 deaths per 100,000 Americans—now it has been practically wiped out. So it goes, down a long list. Comparable progress can be made in controlling the menace of fire—if only we attack it with determination.

The recently-concluded President's Conference on Fire Prevention, in Washington, D. C., was a milestone in the battle against fire. Some 3000 delegates, representing every state, attended, and they will bring to their regions an all-inclusive program for dealing with every phase of the fire problem. But they cannot do the job alone. Success will depend upon the active, informed support of the public at large.

Congress has an imperative duty to protect the workers. Congress must not be intimidated or coerced by threats that labor union bosses will call strikes and promote labor strife if Congress dares to do its duty. Honest unions, democratically operated unions, unions that can hold their own in any debate in a court of public opinion when the true facts are permitted to come to light would be a credit to American democracy. Union bosses who operate and control unions with the totalitarian techniques of fascist dictators cannot be tolerated in free America.

—David Lawrence.

Politics With Color
by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note).

Cornelius Dalton of the Boston Traveler has a very smart political mind. Many readers of the Herald-Traveler have not, perhaps, realized this fact, partly because William E. Mullins of the Herald is given more publicity by his employers. The point I wish to make now is that Dalton has probably given his readers the best explanation to date of the whys and wherefores of the gradual decline in prestige of our fine young Governor. It is quite simple. Governor Bradford is one of the very few Chief Executives in this State who has NOT come to the top via the State Legislature. It would require some research on my part to find more than one or two Governors who did not, at some time in their careers, serve in one of the two branches of the Legislature. Off hand, my impression is that former Governor Alvan T. Fuller did not serve in either branch. Calvin Coolidge and Frank G. Allen were President of the Senate before their election as Governor. Channing H. Cox and Leverett Saltonstall were both Speakers of the House. Cox also served as Lt. Governor, whereas Saltonstall jumped straight to the Governor's chair. In the interest of strict accuracy it should be mentioned that the amazing Franklin Kelly defeated Leverett Saltonstall for Lt. Governor.

Now, the idea is simply this. Any man who sits in either branch of our State Legislature gets to know "the boys" and all their various methods and practices. It is just like President Truman's position in relation to Congress. Mr. Truman, having served in the U. S. Senate, has a great advantage over men like the two Roosevelts, Calvin Coolidge and Herbert Hoover. If my memory serves me none of these Presidents served in Congress prior to their Presidential terms. There is scarcely a week during which some political writer or radio commentator does not comment on the President's ability to get along amicably with Congress, despite the fact that the G.O.P. is in control. He knows just how to handle the average Democrat, except, of course, some of the more recalcitrant Southern Congressmen. Mr. Truman knows how these gentlemen operate and he is able to avoid all sorts of headaches and mistakes.

In Massachusetts, however, we have a Governor who jumped directly from the position of District Attorney of Middlesex County to the Lt. Governorship. Later on he was elected Governor. Of course, Governor Bradford numbers among his friends and acquaintances a great many of our politicians and statesmen, if I may make a subtle distinction. He had not however had the benefit of close association with them in either of the two legislative branches. As a result he has not, apparently, appreciated the tremendous importance of keeping in constant touch, not only with the big leaders of the Legislature but also with, as many as possible of the rank and file. Some of these gentlemen are extremely sensitive about their prerogatives and responsibilities. If they think the Governor is going over their head or in any way by-passing them, they resent it and I mean resent.

What I am getting at in somewhat roundabout fashion is the Governor's tax program and the manner in which it seems to have bogged down. First Rep. Dickie of Reading and then the powerful Rep. Henry L. Shattuck of the Back Bay have publicly turned thumbs down on the sales tax. It occurs to some of us that it would have been smart for the Governor to have ascertained just where these men stood before publicly announcing his program. To be sure, Governor Bradford may have done just that and may have learned of their objections to part of his program and then decided to go ahead anyway. Perhaps he could think of no other solution to the terrifically need it. But this ultimate goal can only be reached if everyone participates in the program. This blood bank must be built up and maintained constantly. The Newton Chapter of the Red Cross is responsible for recruiting blood donors in Newton! Thus far the number of donors needed to fill Newton's requirements has not been reached! It can only be reached by everyone's cooperation. All healthy people between the ages of 18 and 60 are eligible. If you have given before, you know it takes only a half hour of your time; and you quickly remake the blood and feel no after-effects.

But if you have never given, this is your opportunity to participate in a program designed to protect you and the members of your family. Remember a pint of your blood and a half hour of your time assures any member of your family the blood they may need FREE OF CHARGE any time in the year ahead. This is vitally essential insurance to every resident of Newton. Can you overlook this opportunity to help those who need blood NOW . . . and protect your family in the year ahead.

The Newton Methodist Church is sponsoring the 16th of June. The Bloodmobile of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health will be at the Church from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. on that day to receive blood for the State blood bank. It will be at the Chapter House of the Newton Red Cross, 21 Foster street, Newtonville, on the 17th.

Won't you make your appointment today. Call Mrs. Ruth Lombard, Bigelow 0275 for appointment on the 16th, or Mrs. Gray, Lasell 6000 for appointment on the 17th. Remember every day some person's life hangs in the balance if the correct type and quantity of blood is not procurable. GIVE NOW!

The 26th Zonta international convention will be held June 20 to 23 at Mackinaw Island, Michigan. Delegates attending the convention will come from all over the United States, Canada, Hawaii and the Scandinavian countries. It was also reported that the Zonta clubs in Vienna, Hamburg and Berlin have been re-organized.

A feature of the evening was a presentation of a copper serving tray to Miss Alice Doxey and Mrs. Maud Stevens in appreciation of their many services to the club.

The next meeting will be in September.

undergoing treatment in the Middlesex County Sanitarium and countless others in hospitals throughout the state.

While veterans' organizations and their auxiliaries visit the larger hospitals to cheer their comrades, Chief Veduccio continued, similar calls are seldom made at the smaller institutions where only a few of the tubercular veterans can be accommodated, creating the impression among the lonely ones that they have given their all, only to be forgotten and forsaken.

The Murphy General Hospital, the chief concluded, would be ideal for the purpose of treating tubercular veterans in eastern Massachusetts, the hospital in Rutland to care for those in the west. The veterans' administration, organizations and associations should make every effort to obtain the hospital, he added, for the centralization of all that modern medical science can muster in an all out offensive against the dread disease, and for the definite step-up its acquisition would give the ebbing morale of the men fighting their own personal battle for life.

Rep. Rawson introduced this bill in 1945 and again in 1946 as chairman of the Committee on Election Laws, but Governor Tobin vetoed it on both occasions. The bill has on each occasion been endorsed by the Town and City Clerks Associations.

bad played second base for the next two years, and during those two years was the All-Maine second baseman. In 1931 he was appointed teacher-coach at Hanover High School, coaching basketball and football for two years, his teams winning the South Shore championship in both baseball and basketball for two years and in football for one year. In 1933 he came to Newton as a teacher of Social Studies and since then has also been assistant coach in both baseball and football.

Reginald Smith is to take the place for one year of Beverly Wilson, head coach of basketball, who is to have one year of sabbatical leave.

Smith has been assistant to Wilson since 1942 and also has been varsity coach of tennis the past three years. Before coming to Newton in 1942, Smith coached basketball and baseball at Morrisville People's Academy in Vermont. In his six years there, the boys' quintets won 54 and lost 12, while the girls' teams were State champs in 1940, and also were runners-up twice in title play. Smith also was head of the physical education department.

He was graduated from Springfield College in 1934, and played on the basketball, tennis and soccer teams, including one year of cross country competition. Smith studied at Everett High, and was graduated in 1930. He was active in all sports at that school.

WHAT FUR?

In buying a fur coat it is well to check whether there are cracks in the fur, and whether the fibers lie smoothly throughout the coat. Skins which have areas where fibers extend in different directions are not desirable.

F.B.I. Official Will Be Principal Speaker at Police School Graduation Exercises June 10

Graduation exercises for members of the Newton Police Department, as well as officers from Needham and Weston, who have completed the course in the Newton Police Training School, will be held on Tuesday evening, June 10, at 7:45, in the Newton High School Auditorium.

A very interesting program has been arranged by Chief of Police Nicholas Vedula. Mayor Paul M. Goddard will extend the greetings of the city and the guest speaker will be Hugh H. Clegg, Assistant Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation with headquarters at Washington, D. C.

Mr. Clegg is the ideal speaker for such an occasion. He is a native of Mississippi and entered the service of the F.B.I. over twenty years ago, as a Special Agent, then graduated from the ranks, and continued climbing until he reached his present high position in the world's leading law enforcement unit. Mr. Clegg served as a special agent for several years, then was assigned as Special Agent in charge of several of the Country's important field offices, including Chicago, Ill., and Washington, D. C. In the early 1930's he was brought to Headquarters at Washington. During the plague of terror kidnappings and bank robberies in the 30's he was extremely active in the arrests of a number of the Nation's "Public Enemies" whose names were universally known.

Since 1935, he has been Asst. Director in charge of the Division of Training and Inspection of the F.B.I. This Division supervises the training of all recruits as well as those in the service of the Bureau, as well as officers from the National Academy, which is maintained by the Bureau at Washington, and whose graduates are engaged in Law Enforcement all over U. S. and possessions, Canada, Great Britain and China. The speaker's practical experience combined with a thorough knowledge of the theoretical and scientific aspects of law enforcement, makes him the appropriate man to address a group of police officers.

The graduation exercises will be public and citizens of Newton, Needham and Weston who may wish to attend will enjoy an interesting program and will also gain an insight into how their first line of defense is keeping pace with the perpetual enemy "Crime."

Chief Vedula plans to make the training school a permanent unit of our Police Department.

office must assume, arriving at a final decision has been most difficult. I am cognizant of the fact, that Newton's problems are yearly becoming greater, that the affairs of our rapidly growing population, demand a full time Mayor with business management experience or a career man as a City Manager.

In making my decision, I have analyzed carefully the qualifications a candidate for this important office should possess. The sacrifices entailed in turning over to others the active management of one's own business had to have much thought. Consideration for the merits of the worthy citizens who have previously announced their candidacies was a determining factor.

I firmly believe that Newton's more than forty thousand registered voters are entitled to a choice, and should not be limited as to candidates for the office of Mayor. I also believe that in the forthcoming election these voters should be permitted to vote "Yes" or "No" on the adoption of a City Manager form of Government.

My decision is to be a candidate for Mayor, and if elected I will devote my efforts on a full time basis to the affairs of the City of Newton.

Mr. Edwards is President and General Manager at The Roy S. Edwards Lumber Company in Newtonville. He has been connected with the retail lumber industry in Newton for twenty-four years. He is a past president of the Greater Boston Lumber

He was a combat officer in World War I and is a past commander of the Newton Chapter of the Disabled American Veter-

Mr. Edwards, an outstanding civic leader for many years has never held an elective office. His civic activities have been numerous and include the following: Served as chairman of and actively directed The Citizens Committee for Newton Service Men; Citizens Advisory Committee

He founded and organized "What's Cookin' in Newton," a paper which was mailed regularly to those from Newton serving overseas. The Honor Roll at the City Hall was the result of his initiative. Mr. Edwards took an active part in organization the overseas food and clothing drives. He is on the governing board of the Community Chorus of the Newtons.

So You Don't Play the Piano!

By MARY BACON MASON

Why should you or anybody play a difficult music-system that has not been improved for hundreds of years? You don't use a 1000-year-old car or house or coat. It's easy enough to play the piano—anybody can do it. The catch has always been the reading. Why is this? Because when Guido wrote a-b-c-d-e-f on the 7 lines and spaces he left no places for the black keys, and modern music is full of black keys. When these tones were first sung or played they were called 'false' and 'vulgar'. After centuries they became respectable and one by one were written into the music. But how could seven staff degrees accomodate twelve tones? They couldn't. So the 15-Key Signatures had to be invented—naturals, sharps, flats, double-sharps and double-flats, with 10 accidentals to cancel them out. Is it any wonder people take to drink or to radio?

Today everything is streamlined—even music. The atomic age will see an instrument in every home, with a vast wealth of wonderful music that must be read to be enjoyed. It is infinitely more fun to make music yourself than to listen to someone else. You can prove this right now with the song above. To read this music you don't have to know nothing. Sit down at the piano NOW and check these points.

The new music is read AUTOMATICALLY, as you read a map. The lines are just the BLACK KEYS running across the page. On the piano they are in groups of 3 and 2. So the lines have 3 black keys. The first group is solid lines, another group is dotted lines so you can spot them quickly. When you see a note, trace its line back to the chart, and you can't go wrong. No letter names are needed to read this music, and both hands read alike. Isn't that a relief?

Now START TO PLAY THE SONG, RIGHT HAND ALONE. The black keys are easiest to find, so we start with them.

Most of this tune is played on just 3 black keys.

LAY YOUR RIGHT HAND OVER THE 3-BLACK-KEYS TO THE RIGHT OF THE KEY-HOLE. The first note of the song is the Highest of the group-of-3-blacks. The next note is the Middle of the group-of-3-blacks. The next is the Lowest of the 3-blacks. The next is the Middle, and so on.

When you come to words 'roll along' the same note plays 3 times and the third time the note is held twice as long because it has a Double-Stem.

Now TO LEARN THE LEFT HAND ALONE

Play Your Left Hand Over The Five Black Keys To The Left Of The Keyboard. The first chord has 3 black keys. Trace back on the chart and find each one.

The lowest note in the chord is the lowest of the 3-black-group. The next note in the chord is the highest of the 3-black-group. The top of the chord is the lowest black in the TWO-GROUP Sound these three keys all at once.

The next chord is two white notes. White notes are white keys. On the piano the white keys lie between the black keys.

HUBBARD'S GRAND OPENING and ANNIVERSARY SECTION

Store Has Been Newton Landmark Since 1894

THE OLD...

Original Hubbard's Opened Business In Kerosene Era

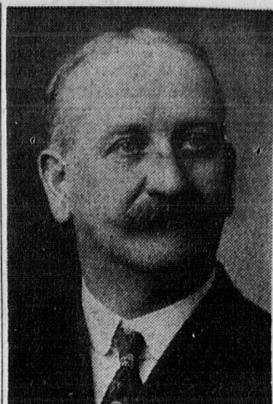

In 1854 Franklin Pierce was President of the United States, and the Governor of Massachusetts was Emory Washburn. In that year Charles F. Rogers opened an apothecary shop at 402 Centre st., Newton, "for the purpose of compounding and dispensing medicines for the cure and relief of ills and diseases of man and beast."

The shop was small and conveniences were few. Water was to be had at the pump behind the store, and kerosene lamps furnished illumination.

In those days "compounding medicines" meant just that. It was the duty of the apothecary to grind his herbs, distil spirits, make infusions, roll pills, prepare solid and fluid extracts by maceration, percolation and evaporation.

Charlie Rogers worked hard and long and prospered. His small store grew and he found it necessary to hire two clerks and he did hire a Mr. Hubbard and a Mr. Proctor. Business flourished and after a few years Mr. Rogers retired and sold his store to Hubbard and Proctor.

In 1894 Mr. Hubbard purchased his partner's interests and moved to the present location on Centre st., where he conducted the business as Hubbard's

FRED A. HUBBARD
Fred A. Hubbard Was
Former Alderman

Mr. Fred A. Hubbard, former proprietor of the Hubbard Drug Company, was at one time employed as a clerk in the drug store in Brackett's Block conducted by Charles F. Rogers. In 1888 in company with Mr. Thomas W. Proctor, he purchased the business from Mr. Rogers and moved it across the street into the Lancaster Block. Mr. Hubbard subsequently bought out Mr. Proctor's interest in the business and moved into the present store on Centre street.

Mr. Hubbard served for two years as a member of the State Board of Registration in Pharmacy and as its secretary. He also was on the legislative committee of the Massachusetts Pharmaceutical Association and was a member of the American Pharmaceutical Association, the Boston Druggists' Association and the Boston Association of Pharmaceutical Association.

He took a deep interest in public matters, served for two years as a member of the Board of Aldermen in Newton, and was the first president of the Newton Business Men's Association, and its successor, the Newton Board of Trade.

He was also a member of the Newton Methodist Church, of the Dalhousie Lodge of Masons and of the Hunnewell Club.

WILFRED CHAGNON
Chagnon, Proprietor
Of Hubbard's, Well
Known in Pharmacy

Wilfred Chagnon, proprietor of Hubbard's Drug Store, is well known throughout New England and New York State as one of the leading authorities on Pharmacy in this section of the country.

Mr. Chagnon is past president of the Boston Association of Retail Druggists, a former chairman of Committees of the National Druggists, Past President of the Independent Retail Druggists of New England, and Past President of the Massachusetts Pharmaceutical Association.

He was appointed Commissioner of Pharmacy by Governor Saltonstall in 1940 and served for more than 5 years. He was not reappointed by Governor Tobin, upon the expiration of his term, but in 1947 was again appointed by Governor Bradford for a 5 year term.

Mr. Chagnon is Vice-Chairman of the Newton Republican City Committee and chairman of its Finance Committee. He is chairman for New England of the Nurses War Memorial Fund and this year was elected a director of the Newton National Bank.

From the Newton Graphic
July 3, 1875
We are glad to hear that proprietors of drug stores propose to confine their Sunday trade strictly to the sale of medicines. It is clearly against the statute law to sell other articles on Sunday.

Dear Wilfred:

I wish to congratulate Hubbard Drug Company on sixty years of outstanding service to our city and on the opening of the finest, most up to date drug store in the Commonwealth. The good drug store, operated and staffed by qualified registered pharmacists is the physician's competent ally keeping up the public health.

I want to congratulate you personally on your many years of successful business among us. With all due respect to others, I have often called you the best business man in the community. By hard work, sound methods of merchandising and your fine personality, you have made yourself just that.

I want to thank you also for many favors and kindnesses, and most of all for the depth and breadth and sincerity of your friendship.

Dear Wilfred:

May I take this opportunity through the columns of the GRA-

PHIC to congratulate you on the 60th Anniversary of Hubbard's and the official opening of your fine new store.

To grow and prosper as you and your store have is the result not only of giving honest values

nor the maintenance of an establishment that has always been the pride of the community. It is more than that. It is the friendly attitude of your staff and the neighborly atmosphere that pervades your store. It is your personal interest in the problems of others and your many unpublicized acts of kindness to your fellow citizens that have given you an enviable reputation for service.

I wish you many, many more years of success.

Sincerely,

John S. Whittemore.

The store also has the first biological refrigerator of its kind in the country, built to order with display rack and 12 drawers containing serums of all kinds for the protection of the public health.

Another modern feature is the biological refrigerator in which candy is kept always at the proper temperature.

The very attractive cosmetic counter carrying all leading lines, is the most up to date in the city. There is also a department carrying a complete line of photographic equipment and supplies.

The store employs a staff of 22 including seven registered pharmacists, and patrons are assured of prompt courteous service from all employees. At the time the business was first taken over by Mr. Chagnon there were only 3 clerks employed, and under his able management the business has progressed to its present successful standing.

X-Ray Program Has Good Response

"The results of the recent x-ray program conducted in various Newton industries was highly satisfactory," reported Miss Ruth N. Brooks, Health Educator of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, at a meeting of the Industrial Hygiene Committee of the Newton Community Council held last night at the Community Council headquarters in Newton, under the chairmanship of Miss Hilga S. Nelson of the District Nursing Association.

Mrs. Helen C. Flanagan of the Sherman Paper Products Company described the poster system used by her plant and offered many sound suggestions as to how the posters depicting the various diseases and health practices could be most fully utilized. She suggested making posters clearly explaining to employees that they will not lose their positions through the findings of the chest x-ray. It was agreed by the committee to continue sending out posters to the various industries in a planned manner.

The services of an instructor in first aid were offered by Mr. Ralph Emery, a representative of the Am. Red Cross, to teach first aid to selected employees of industries in Newton Upper Falls in the near future. The committee decided to survey several industries in order to determine the number of employees available for first aid courses to be held in the daytime under plant supervision. It was hoped that this offer will be accepted by as many plants as possible in order to afford competent first aid treatment to persons who may be injured in the future. Miss Mary McAleer, executive secretary of the Newton Community Council described further details and suggestions as to the manner of conducting the first aid courses.

Mr. Emery also described the very favorable results of routine chest x-rays of all admissions to a Boston hospital. This routine chest x-ray has revealed several unsuspected cases of tuberculosis among younger children, as well as certain other medical conditions of adults which would not ordinarily have been located until they had become more serious.

Helpful Health Hints
Preventing Disease

Dr. Ernest M. Morris, Newton's Health Officer and Executive Committee Member of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, issued a report today on the subject "Preventing Disease."

Directed toward parents of teen-age children, the report is as follows:

"Most parents, even those who neglect their own health, are conscientious where their children's welfare is concerned. They try to provide the proper food, housing and medical care, and to teach their children hygienic habits."

"As children enter adolescence and begin to meet a larger group of people and acquire new interests, parental supervision of health habits may begin to relax. Young people engrossed by their new interests, hobbies and friendships and unable to judge the limits of their own endurance are apt to 'overdo' it, thereby undermining their health so completely as to guide in childhood."

"Actually, adolescence is a period when observance of health rules is as important as ever. Tuberculosis is one of the major dangers to young people who deteriorate. Despite the fact that the human body has a natural resistance to tuberculosis, this disease takes the lives of more young people between the ages of 15 and 25 than any other disease."

"A person who contracts tuberculosis must spend months or years in a sanatorium or sick room—months or years that should be spent launching or furthering his career. The eradication of tuberculosis would constitute a major gain to the country as a whole."

"Young people are not the only group susceptible to tuberculosis. No age group is immune. Parents, however, can help eradicate tuberculosis by teaching young people to keep their general health at top level and to form the habit of getting periodic physical examinations, including chest X-rays. If a person who has formed the habit of having periodic chest X-rays gets tuberculosis, he discovers the disease in its early stages, when the chances of curing it are best. If all cases of tuberculosis were found in the early stages, the chain of communication could be broken and the disease which is the greatest threat to America's young people could in time be eradicated."

"In Newton, many people are working toward the eventual eradication of tuberculosis. The Newton Health Department, Newton doctors, the Industrial Hygiene Committee of the Newton Community Council, the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, and the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association are cooperating in a program which includes X-ray clinics, public health nursing services, health education, and rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients and their families."

The science of changing chemicals into electricity has resulted in the development of a new Eveready general purpose flashlight battery with twice its former capacity.

Voltage is increased by connecting two or more Eveready batteries in series. If you want to light a six-volt lamp, you would connect four dry cells in series.

Sources of Platinum in order of importance are: Canada, Columbia, Great Britain and Russia.

THE PRICELESS INGREDIENT

In the City of Bagdad lived Hakeem the Wise One, and many people went to him for counsel, which he gave freely to all, asking nothing in return.

There came to him a young man who had spent much but got little, and said: "Tell me, Wise One, what shall I do to receive the most for that which I spend?"

Hakeem answered, "A thing that is bought or sold has no value unless it contains that which cannot be bought or sold. Look for the Priceless Ingredient."

"But, what is this Priceless Ingredient?" asked the young man.

Spoke then the Wise One: "My son, the Priceless Ingredient of every product in the market-place is the Honor and Integrity of him who makes it. Consider his name before you buy."

The 41st Annual Conference of the Municipal Finance Officers of U. S. and Canada was held last week in New York to discuss methods, problems and situations arising in these changing times. Newton was represented by City

Treasurer Clarence C. Colby, Comptroller Archie R. Whitman, and Chairman of Finance Committee, Theodore R. Lockwood.

The various sessions of the week dealt with Current Revenue Sources, the Bond Market, Postwar Public Improvements, Inter-governmental Fiscal Relations, Shared Taxes, Tax Accounting and Collecting, Budgeting Public Employee Retirement and many diverse phases of municipal finance, constituting a detailed history of the progress of city operations as well as modern financial controls.

Through this organization cities and towns throughout the country keep abreast of improved methods, meeting in groups in the various state associations throughout the year.

The official reports appear in the organization's magazine, Municipal Finance, and regular bulletins.

Four volunteer drivers are needed by the Newton Family Service Bureau, a member organization of the Volunteer Service Bureau of the Newton Community Council! If you have a few hours each week of free time — this is your opportunity to serve — to be a good neighbor in your own community!

Your aid is necessary in the transportation of children to and from clinics and hospitals and emergency transportation!

Veterans Reminded Of Terminal Pay Regulations

In order to remind veterans of terminal pay regulations, Mr. Carl F. Schipper, Jr., Home Service chairman of the Newton Red Cross, points out that all applications for terminal leave pay must be mailed prior to September 1, 1947, the deadline established by the Armed Forces Leave Act of 1946.

"Home Service at the Newton Chapter," says Mr. Schipper, "is prepared to offer assistance to veterans or eligible survivors or answer specific questions regarding eligibility and application procedure. The telephone number is LASell 6000."

Any veteran who served as an enlisted person with the armed forces between September 8, 1939 and September 1, 1946 and who was honorably discharged before the latter date, is entitled to apply for Terminal Leave Pay. This is the payment of accrued leave on the basis of 2 1/2 days for each month of service not taken prior to discharge. The maximum number of days is 120.

Application blanks may be secured from any United States

Post Office or Army Recruiting Station, or in the case of eligible survivors, from any Federal Reserve Bank.

Few people realize that the raw materials for even such a compact item as an Eveready battery, go through rigid inspection processes and are subject to as many as 63 tests.

The private branch telephone exchange in the Pentagon Building is the largest exchange of its kind in the world and contains approximately 68,600 miles of trunk lines.

Newton Doctors to Attend American Med. Assoc. Meeting

Dr. George W. Van Gorder of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital staff will give a paper on "Orthopedic Surgery" at the 96th annual session of the American Medical Association to be held in Atlantic City, New Jersey, June 9-13.

Other members of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital staff who will attend the session are Dr. Egon Kattwinkel, Dr. George Bowers, Dr. Henry Keever, Dr. Lewis Pilcher and Dr. Theodore Clark.

The American Medical Association is this year observing their Centennial celebration.

rective, vehicle or diluent, the tendency of modern therapeutics being against polypharmacy and in the direction of simple and concentrated remedies, or those having positive effects. There are many advantages to be derived, however, from the combination of ingredients, even when these have similar medicinal action.

small proportion of them are specifics, that is, adapted to remedy or prevent some specific disease, as quinine for malaria etc., and most of them are poisonous if taken in large doses or for a long period.

Hubbard's have made a strict rule which is religiously adhered to and that is "We do no 'counter-prescribe,' we advise you to see your physician."

The Latin language is preferred here in writing prescriptions, as it is also in Great Britain, Germany and other European countries. The advantages

Modern Drugs Come From Far Lands

Hubbard's Drug Store is a museum of strange and wonderful things. The drugs assembled there, marshalled in orderly rows of shining glass bottles, have been brought from every corner of the world to help nature restore health. A single prescription may contain substances from the five continents.

Side wheel steamers have chugged far into the upper regions of the Amazon for cinchona bark from which quinine is made. Camel caravans have wound along snaky paths through the hills of Persia and Arabia to market with their loads of gum tragacanth, which gives consistency to pills, recking asafetida and colocynth. Dog sledges have crossed the frozen plains of Siberia, bullock carts have crawled creaking over the long roads of India, and down myriad Chinese waterways unwieldy junks have sailed bringing to market important drugs and healing substances from the animal, vegetable and mineral kingdoms which eventually find their way to Hubbard's and countless other corner drug stores.

Today the discovery of valuable remedies is not left to chance, drug experts are constantly seeking new drugs and experimenting with their effects. How modest seem the simple mortars, retorts and filters of the apothecaries of 50 years ago compared with the equipment and apparatus found in Hubbard's Drug store today.

The 12,000 or more drugs that are used by modern physicians are generally divided into groups named according to the effect produced by them on the human body. Thus we have antidyne, hypnotics, anesthetics, narcotics, stimulants, anti-pyretics, astringents, antiseptics etc. Modern science has found in coal tar a rich source of drugs and chemicals. The disinfectant carbolic acid and such drugs as acetanilid, phenacetin, phenolphthalein and a host of common everyday drugs are derived from coal tar. The drugs of recognized value and known composition are listed in an official publication called the United States Pharmacopoeia, generally referred to by pharmacists as "The Druggists' Bible." This book was designated as the legal standard for drugs by the Pure Food and Drugs Act of 1906.

Valuable as medicinal agents may be, however, few of them should be employed except on a physician's advice. Only a very small proportion of them are

Protestant Laymen's Dinner June 9th

A Protestant Laymen's Dinner will be held in the Hotel Copley Plaza on June 9 under the auspices of the Massachusetts Council of Churches. Charles P. Taft, newly elected president of the Federal Council of Churches, and the first layman to hold that position, will be the main speaker.

The affair, which will be attended by 1,000 prominent persons who will contribute $50 for the support of the Council, is coincidental with the 45th anniversary of the organization. Governor Robert F. Bradford is honorary chairman, and Robert Cutler, president of the Old Colony Trust Company, is chairman of the dinner committee. Tables are being secured from individual laymen and women, local churches, denominational headquarters, and related agencies. In addition, local communities are being organized with the help of key people who are working to obtain pledges for tables.

THE NEWTON GRAPHICAre You Acquainted
With the Newton
Community Council?

How many people in Newton understand the purpose, efforts and results of the Newton Community Council, a Red Feather Service? How many know of the many needs in the city of Newton filled daily by it and its members' organizations? Too few realize how the Newton Community Council works steadfastly and constantly to make this city an even better place to live.

The purpose of this organization is higher standards of living for all. Its efforts are varied and many. The Council investigates housing conditions, nursery school needs and new programs and expansions in Community Chest agencies. The Council coordinates Christmas giving to the needy, Volunteer and Nutrition service. It promotes Industrial Hygiene, Cancer Education, the study of social conditions and Adult Education.

But its results depend on you and your support of and cooperation in their program. One of the most vital ways you can contribute your aid is through the Volunteer Service Bureau of the Newton Community Council. This agency strives to recruit volunteers for responsible and interesting positions which suit their own particular interests and abilities best. The Volunteer Service Bureau Needs You! Whether you can give one hour a week or more—you can serve.

One of the most urgent needs for volunteers comes from the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Aid Coffee Shop. If this coffee shop is to function efficiently in the summer months ahead, volunteers must be found. All women between the ages of 17 and 50 are eligible. You may choose to work as a cashier, fountain operator or waitress. The three shifts are from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., 1 to 5 p.m., and 5 to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. All proceeds from this coffee shop go to the Newton-Wellesley Hospital. This is but one of the many ways you may be a good neighbor and aid those less fortunate in your own community through the Volunteer Service Bureau of the Newton Community Council. If you can give a few hours each week to work at the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Aid Coffee Shop or if you wish further information on how you can serve best... Call the Newton Community Council—LA 5121.

Dining With Jane and Bill

Bill—You know it has been a long time since we have had any rice, Jane, how come?

Jane—Why, there has been a shortage of rice all fall, dear. But then we aren't missing too much for white rice is not nearly as nutritious as potatoes.

Bill—That's what you think, Jane, white rice will soon be just as nutritious as potatoes, if not more so.

Jane—What on earth are you talking about?

Bill—Just today I read an article entitled "Enrichment of Rice with Synthetic Vitamins and Iron" in one of the Industrial and Engineering journals in the office. It said a group of workers have perfected a fortified premix which is mixed into the white rice and . . .

Jane—Just what is this fortified premix, Bill?

Bill—This premix is made up of thiamin, niacin, and iron. Jane. After washing and cooking, the enriched rice contains at least the minimum levels of all three nutrients as fixed by the U. S. Food and Drug Administration for enriched flour.

Jane—But how is the premix made, Bill?

Bill—It is quite a lengthy process, dear, so I will try to boil it down so a woman can understand what it is all about. A small portion of the white rice is put in a rotating drum and the vitamin solution is added. After a thorough mixing, the rice is dried by preheated air, and a coating solution is sprayed over the rotating rice. An iron mixture is added next and thoroughly distributed over the rice. Then a second protective solution is applied and dried as before. That's all there is to it, honey. Simple as A B C.

Jane—Oh, I see it all now. This premix is then added to regular white rice and called enriched rice. But won't I lose a lot of this added food value when I cook the rice?

Bill—The man who made these experiments found that if the rice is first washed in cold water, and cooked in a small amount of water at a low temperature, it will not lose as much food value.

Jane—That sounds as though a double-boiler would be the best thing to use to cook this new rice, because there would be no water left over to throw away.

Bill—Well, now that we both know about this new enriched rice and the right way to cook it in order not to lose the valuable vitamins and iron which it contains—how about cooking some for supper in the very near future?

Jane—That's a splendid idea, darling. I will keep my eyes open for it at the grocery store, and hope I can find some soon.

STEAMED RICE

Allow 3 to 4 times as much water as rice. Sprinkle the rice into rapidly boiling salted water (1 teaspoon salt for 1 quart of water) in the top part of a double boiler. Set over boiling water and cook until the rice is tender and the water absorbed or about 45 minutes. This is the best method for cooking rice when it is to be molded or used in a pudding.

Youth Program Shows Progress

The sponsoring committee for the Youth Activities Program of Auburndale met on the evening of May 21st at the Auburndale Club, with the chairman, Mr. Richard A. Winslow, presiding.

Mr. William Bungard, director of community activities for the Newton Y.M.C.A. which supervises the program, reported nearly a hundred boys enrolled at the present time. It is difficult for some of these boys to pay the suggested fee of two dollars, but it was made clear that all are welcome in any case. There are now three leaders on duty Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at the Lyons Playground on Commonwealth Avenue. A group of eight and nine-year-olds are handled separately from the older boys.

Sixteen boys were recently taken on a trip to Boston Harbor and boarded the "Constitution." A weenie roast is planned for the near future. On some rainy days the boys have been taken to the Y.M.C.A. building for a swim.

In explaining memberships, Mr. Bungard told the group that the boy's fee entitles him to a membership card which admits him to a monthly party and swim at the local program. As to the different types of adult memberships which are now being solicited, $2 gives the privilege of attending meetings on the Program and some adult study classes on child problems. $5 includes certain privileges of the Y.M.C.A. such as bridge, Forums, chess, clubs, use of the gameroom and tennis courts. For $10 a man may use the squash courts and participate in the bowling leagues. A $15 membership is for full privileges of the Y including pool, locker, etc. The money for any of these memberships is credited to the Auburndale Program, but the member gets the benefits as well as helping the youth of the village.

The $800 now being raised is for pay of leaders, mailings to the boys and stenographic help.

At present there are only a few Junior High boys included, but it is expected that this number will increase each season, as the boys progress in school and wish to continue the supervised sports.

In answer to a question, Mr. Bungard outlined the year-round program which starts off in the fall with football. There were no major injuries last fall. The boys belong to a league and each boy gets a chance to play. The schedule for the winter season consisted of basketball in the vestry of the Methodist Church which gave the use of its facilities. The spring is occupied with a baseball league, and on June 7th, there is to be a city track meet of twenty-five events at the Y.M.C.A. A silver cup, now held by the Williams School, will be awarded to the winning school. In addition to the above-mentioned officers of the Committee, Mr. Eugene Wadman is serving as Vice Chairman, and Mrs. Willard G. Hatch as Secretary.

Entered as second-class mail matter at the post office at Boston, Mass., under the Act of March 3, 1879Blood Donor Response Falls Far Below Newton's Needs!

Once again Newton would seem to be falling short in fulfilling its requirements for blood donors. Why is it that Newton, a city of public-spirited, civic-minded people, does not respond to this vitally urgent need? During the war, Newton citizens gave their time and money to support all agencies that relieved suffering . . . that aided the boys overseas in any way . . . but even then they did not wholeheartedly support the Red Cross Blood Program. NEWTON'S BLOOD REQUIREMENTS HAVE NEVER BEEN MET.

The program of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, that of building and maintaining a blood bank sufficient to the needs of the Commonwealth, can not be carried out without a widespread participation by citizens everywhere.

The Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross appreciates the help that many Newton organizations have contributed in the recruiting of donors. Yet this help is not enough . . . the aid of every person as a donor or solicitor must be enlisted if Newton's needs are to be met.

The Bloodmobile will be in Newton on the sixteenth and seventeenth of June . . . will Newton once again fall short of its requirements? Will Newton again be one of the few towns in Greater Boston to fail to find the Blood Donors needed to protect Newton citizens?

Do not let this happen! If you have given blood before, make an appointment to do so again . . . if you have never given blood, plan to sign up now . . . this is your opportunity to insure your family the blood they need in the year ahead . . . FREE OF CHARGE. All healthy persons between 18 and 60 can give blood. A Cork in the Shotgun

Some time ago the President made dramatic appeals for price reductions. A short time later Newburyport, Massachusetts, blossomed forth with a spectacular program for cutting retail prices ten per cent. The merchants of that community voluntarily assumed the burden of an arbitrary, across-the-board reduction, in the hope that the movement would snowball its way back to producers and manufacturers and gradually become nationwide. It was a brave attempt. The publicity was terrific. Everybody in the country soon heard of the Newburyport plan. But the grim reality of natural laws could not be sidestepped with a circus. The cost of the things that the merchants of Newburyport had on their counters continued to creep upward. People were still asking for wage increases. Many politicians were still thinking up bigger and better public spending schemes. Local groups across the country were still applauding appropriations from the public treasury for the home town. The two hundred and sixty billion dollar Federal debt, with all of its indirect inflationary effects, sat like a block of granite across the path of the happy planners. The Newburyport plan died.

The retail distribution industry has been doing everything within its power to control prices. But in the light of present narrow margins, there is not much it can do to bring prices down. The source of the trouble goes back to spiraling government debt, spiraling wages, and finally the philosophy of grab that prevails in everything. Spectacular appeals to business and the Newburyport scheme are good publicity stunts—and that is all. For practical purposes they are about as effective as trying to stop the muzzle blast of a shotgun with a cork, after the trigger has been pulled.

Newton Highlands Meeting
On Taxation

A large group of citizens who are deeply concerned over the current tax situation on Beacon Hill had an opportunity to voice their feelings and their ideas regarding taxation on Wednesday evening, June 4 at the Newton Highlands Women's Club Workshop. Reps. Spear and Whitmore of the south side deserve a vote of thanks for organizing this meeting, which was assembled in a very short time. One reason, as far as I could judge, was the temporary bogging down of Governor Bradford's special tax program in the State Legislature. Insiders appear to believe that the sales tax is very nearly licked for this year, at least, despite the Governor's insistence that his entire program must be passed to avert disaster in many cities and towns throughout the state.

Your columnist would now like to give a few impressions which he took away from this meeting. First of all, there was strong sentiment for the Governor and for a large part of his general program. One very close friend of our Chief Executive drew an interesting picture of the type of man now sitting in the Governor's chair. He said, in substance, that Governor Bradford had said, not long ago, that it appeared to be extremely difficult, if not impossible, for a man to be BOTH a good and a popular Governor. Most of us knew precisely what he meant. This state does not always have a man in power who has the intestinal fortitude to present a clear picture of the state's financial condition and then follow it up by presenting a specific program for solving the problems involved. Just go back over our list of Governors and mark down those who were noted for their courage. You will have to cross out the names of quite a few, will you not? And that, incidentally, will mean the crossing out of Republican Governors as well as Democratic Governors.

Another impression. There is something very, very wrong on Beacon Hill in connection with horse and dog racing. Obviously there are "higher-ups," and therefore members of the G.O.P. who frankly do NOT wish to impose further taxes on either horse or dog racing. Why is this and who are the men involved? I have a fair idea of what is to happen. Perhaps, before this Legislature adjourns (and it is in a terrific hurry) there will be something important to report.

Another point. The discussion of the personal property tax makes me wonder just why this is not handled more severely. If it is true that the average taxpayer is definitely NOT paying what he ought to and what, in most cases he could well afford to, it is high time for action. Here is a substantial source of new revenue, based on ability to pay. And that reminds me of something. Replying to a query about a possible tax on radios, Mr. Francis, a former member of the Legislature, gave me the impression that this type of tax would require the setting up of a Gestapo. I wonder why. If we can be required to make a sworn statement in connection with our income taxes, why can we not be required to do the same thing in connection with our household property? As a matter of fact, it is my understanding that the assessors levy on their own estimates of a property-holders personal property, including everything of value INSIDE one's house. We all pay this tax until such time as the assessors tax us unfairly. Then we have the privilege of

Letter to The Editor

To the Editor:

I am writing to ask your help to correct a situation which is uglyfying our fair city. As one of Newton's oldest residents, I have been proud to observe the city's growth, and want to help correct any errors of such nature as to detract from the city's beauty. In recent months, apparently as a result of the efforts of the police, automobiles that were formerly left overnight on the streets have been removed.

However, many of these autos are now parked on sidewalks overnight and the police in the Newton Corner area seem to do nothing about it. In addition to detracting from the beauty of the area, these automobiles represent a distinct physical hazard. Please help to see that this is corrected.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Arthur M. Reilly,
147 Sargent Street,
Newton.

Dear Sir:

Mr. Roy S. Edwards has announced his candidacy for election to the office of Mayor of Newton.

In a recent statement in the Graphic he said that he was urged to do this by various groups and many citizens.

As one of those citizens suggesting that he become a candidate, I recommended that favorable consideration be given to his candidacy, for he measures up to the high qualification that is required for one to be the Mayor of Newton.

Roy Edwards is an honorable man in all things and at all times. He has had many years of experience as owner of an essential industry in Newton, a good business man.

During the 1st War, he served as a Captain in a famous and noted Combat Regiment in Europe—during the recent War he was a member of our Citizen's Committee that attended to the welfare of our young men upon their departure for their service in Military or Naval Forces—he was a familiar figure at City Hall when young men of Newton were "shipping out".

The Mothers' Auxiliary of the All Newton Music School, of which Mrs. Sylvester McGinn of Newton Centre is chairman, will hold a "Conversation-Bridge Party" at the school on Wednesday afternoon, June 18, from one to three-fifteen o'clock. Guests at the party will include members of the board of trustees, staff and faculty as well as mothers of Music School students.

Miss Emma Menge is chairman in charge of invitations. Assisting her as co-chairmen are Mrs. Carl Chupp of Waban, Mrs. F. Henry Balos of Newton, Mrs. F. I. Huss of Newton Centre, Mrs. Ralph Smith of Newtonville, and Mrs. Malcolm Bickum of West Newton. Mrs. Ralph Hall of Auburndale is in charge of refreshments, Mrs. George F. Koller of West Newton, of tables and decorations, and Mrs. Richard Lee of Newton, of prizes.

The Mothers' Auxiliary is an organization open to all the mothers of Music School students. The purpose of the group is to keep in touch with the music work of their children and assist the staff and faculty in making the school a real music centre in the community. The "Conversation-Bridge Party" will be the last meeting of the group until the fall at which time they will meet to plan for the Annual Open House to be held on Sunday afternoon, October 26 from three to six o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Kersting and family and Mrs. Florence Collins spent last week at their cottage "The Auburndale" in Provincetown. Next week Mrs. Kersting will entertain her sewing club at her cottage on Pilgrim Beach.

Mayor Goddard Urges All Citizens to Back R. C. Donor Drive

Mayor Paul M. Goddard today called on all citizens in Newton to back the drive for Blood Donors now being carried on by the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross in cooperation with the Massachusetts Department of Public Health. He urged all citizens who are eligible to give blood to do so on either the 16th or 17th of June when the State Bloodmobile will be in Newton.

He emphasized the importance of the campaign in the following statement:

"The need for blood is one of the most vital of peacetime. There is no substitute for its life-giving properties, and the blood needed to protect Newton residents for the year ahead must come from Newton."

"I know that Newton citizens are quick to respond to any cause that benefits the common good of all, but it has been brought to my attention that we are not meeting the requirements.

"We all recognize the necessity of reaching our goal—that of sufficient blood to meet the needs of all residents of our city."

"I urge you, if you are eligible—and all healthy people between the ages of 18 and 60—are to support this program—to participate in it by giving a pint of blood—and just a half hour of your time. This gift of yours may mean a life saved!"

Miss Helen Gonyea, daughter of Mrs. George B. Gonyea, 12 Burns Rd., Newton, graduated last Sunday from Cushing Academy Ashburnham.

Long before the official opening hours crowds began to gather in front of the store indicating that a record attendance could be expected during the day. As the hours went by more and more people came to the store.

The new 30 foot soda fountain was crowded from the opening to the closing time, as were the cosmetic and candy counters.

A real holiday atmosphere pervaded the store and everybody enjoyed themselves. The entire crew of 22 clerks was on duty all day and in the evening it became necessary to press friends into service to wait on the customers.

As each person entered the store he was given a garnet and numbered ticket. There was no obligation to make a purchase, and at the close of the day a drawing was held and prizes awarded to lucky ticket holders.

At the closing hour a trio led by John Craig, "The Match King," rendered musical selections serenading Wilfred Chagnon.

Over $1,000 in merchandise was given to the winners who were:

Commission; State Representative Howard Whitmore, Edward A. Soucy, special agent in charge of the New England District of the FBI, Ernest Schwotzer and John Buckley, special agents; Roy S. Edward, president of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, and Newton Police Capt. William P. Mahoney, whose son, William, Jr., was a graduate.

Mayor Paul M. Goddard extended the greetings of the city and expressed the hope that this would be the first in a series of police school annual graduation exercises. The police department, the mayor said, was one of the city departments which had been cited for meritorious work and has many times been commended publicly by the F.B.I. and the District Attorney's office. "What impresses me most" continued Mayor Goddard "is the fact that regardless of the fine record of our police department, the members of the department seek additional knowledge of police work such as this school has offered them."

Mr. Hugh H. Clegg, Asst. Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation was the principal speaker. He brought congratulations from J. Edgar Hoover, head of the F.B.I. and told of some of his own experiences in the apprehension of lawbreakers. He stated that there were over 6½ million criminals in the United States, taking life, property and invading our rights. He pointed out that there is an opportunity for every police officer to do some constructive good. Police, he said, come in contact with the pre-delinquent and the opportunity for guidance is great. Asserting that punishment does deter crime he cited that in 1933 there were 600 bank robberies in the U. S. Police of every state co-operated in reducing this record and the results show that in 1944 this type of crime had been reduced to 22 during that year.

Rabbi Samuel N. Sherman of Temple Emanuel, Newton Centre, also spoke concluding his remarks with the statement that he hoped he would always be on good terms with the police.

Certificates to the following graduates of the School including members of the Newton, Needham and Weston police departments were awarded by Mayor Goddard:

On Tuesday evening (June 10) Mr. Arnold entertained his Chairman at his home, with Chester M. Alter, President of the Chest, E. Graham Bates, 1948 Campaign Chairman, and Charles H. Myers, Assistant Campaign Chairman, as guests. Plans for the fall Campaign were discussed, and Arnold announced that the period for village worker meetings in division should be held before the end of September, so that solicitation may start well ahead of the general Campaign. He urged each Chairman to give serious consideration to the best means who will do soliciting up-to-date of bringing before all those information on the work being done by Red Feather services and the needs of the Campaign.

June is the enrollment period for Advance Gifts workers, and 5 of the 9 Village Chairman have already reported complete enrollment, and one other Chairman partial enrollment. With a goal of 140 workers 80 have already been appointed.

St. Paul's Church Plans Fall Frolic

Committees are already busy on plans for the extensive Fall Frolic to be held by the parish of St. Paul, Newton Highlands, on Friday and Saturday, November 15 and 16.

The festivities will begin at 1:30 o'clock on Friday with a dessert bridge, under the direction of Mrs. Harold Wentworth, and will continue until 5 o'clock. In the evening there will be dancing in the workshop of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lincoln and the Young People's Fellowship of the church.

One of the popular features of the Frolic will be the sale which will run continuously throughout the two days, beginning at 2 p.m. on Friday and again at 10 a.m. on Saturday. Chairmen in charge of the various tables and other attractions are as follows:

Grabs, Mrs. S. E. Hodges; food, Miss Nelda Prosser and Mrs. Frederick O. Bliss; aprons, Mrs. Rinaldo Neal; mittens, Mrs. James R. Willey; dolls, clothes, Mrs. Everett Krosschell; plants, Mrs. W. B. Fogg; post office, Mrs. Bennett Evans; decorative containers and other gifts, Mrs. Frank E. Seeley; Christmas decorations, Mrs. Ralph Stober; costume jewelry, Mrs. Willard Rice; and nibble nook (refreshments), Young People's Fellowship.

Many gay and appealing activities are being planned especially for children—including pony rides, a magician, balloons, refreshments and an endless variety of jolly stunts. In addition, movies will be shown all through Saturday.

An dinner supper is scheduled to be served at 6 p.m. on Saturday, under the supervision of Mrs. Mildred Cook and Mrs. Murdoch Blake; and at 7:30 that same evening there will be an auction, the details of which are in the hands of Mrs. Adele Koopman.

Mrs. Mildred B. Higgins is general chairman of the Fall Frolic; and working with her, as her immediate committee, are Mrs. Leonard Bassett, Mrs. Willard Rice, Mr. Edgar Swail and Mr. John Bowen. Miss Sally Evans is in charge of the preparation of posters and Mr. E. F. Haberstroh is handling general publicity.

These annual Fall affairs at St. Paul's Church have always been most successful and have been attended not only by the members of the parish, but by great numbers of friends from miles around, as well. With the committees already busily engaged in working out plans for the coming Frolic and concentrating on a number of new and unusual features, it is expected that the program will have such an exceptionally wide appeal that the event attract a larger attendance than in any previous year.

mission and told of the vast amount of research and painstaking work involved. Later on, during the prolonged question and answer period, he said that the reason that the report of this commission has not, as yet, been made available to the general public was that the report was made direct to the Governor, for his particular benefit in drawing up his general tax program for this year.

During the question period some interesting points were made, either by the questioners or by former Rep. Francis or other people with special knowledge of the tax situation or the specific problems on Beacon Hill. Most important, perhaps, were some suggestions for new taxes, such as an increased tax on the horse and dog tracks, on radios and a more efficient method of property tax. This latter brought out considerable discussion, during which Mr. Holden enlightened the audience with a statement of the procedure currently in use at City Hall. Those present appeared to believe that considerable additional revenue might well be obtained by much stricter method of collection of this tax.

Rep. Rawson made a good point when he referred to the increasing strength of pressure groups on Beacon Hill. These groups make it difficult for those who lack fortitude to vote correctly on certain legislative matters. Senator Lee also mentioned some of the troubles which our representatives encounter in their endeavor to secure the passage of proper legislation. He was publicly complimented by Rep. Rawson for the speedy manner in which he has learned the technique used on Beacon Hill.

Dr. Anderson, Mrs. Thresher and Rep. Spear stressed the importance of finding money with which to promote educational facilities in this state. It was pointed out that Massachusetts lags far behind a great many other states in the funds supplied for education.

All in all, it was a most interesting and informative meeting.

Newton Upper Falls Girl Scouts gathered last Friday at Emerson School for a Court of Awards and Fly-up Ceremony for the Brownie-Intermediate, and Senior Scouts. Parents, the Village Girl Scout Committee and Mrs. Walter Mueller of the Newton Council were guests of honor.

N. H. S. Class of '97 Holds Reunion

The class of '97, Newton High School, held a 50th Reunion Dinner at Brae Burn Country Club, Monday, June 9, at 6:30 p. m., preceded by an informal reception. There were 63 present, 37 of them class members, the rest husbands, wives and children of members. Mr. Raymond A. Green of the Newton High School and Mrs. Green were guests.

George W. Pratt of Newton Center was toastmaster, and enlivened the occasion with his well-told stories, many of them originals. The speakers were Fanny Garrison, recently retired from the Department of Hygiene and Physical Education, Wellesley College, who told of locating 73 of the 124 graduates and 50 of the 138 non-graduates. Death has claimed 30 graduates and 37 non-graduates. She gave a brief summary of material gleaned from the questionnaires returned, telling of the work past and present, and the interests and hobbies of members. Grace (Shepardson) Kuntz, until 1946 supervisor of physical education in the Newton public schools, contrasted the high school of 1897 with that of today, with special reference to drills and sports. Mr. Raymond A. Green, principal of the Newton High School, told of the high school of today and some of the plans for the future, especially with regard to the junior college.

There were 5-minute talks by Ernest R. Greene, professor of Romance Languages and Literature, Dartmouth College; Gordon E. Marble of Plymouth, N. H., formerly with the General Electric Company; Charles R. Cumming of Westfield, N. J., a manufacturer's agent dealing with road machinery; Albert W. Higgins of St. Petersburg, Fla., president of the Florida Power Corporation; Frank G. Fitzpatrick of Swampscott, with Brown Durrell Co. In general they paid tribute to the worth of the Newton schools, their love for New England and especially for the Newtons, and talked of their own experiences in work and play.

D. Leighton Ordway, treasurer of the committee sponsoring the reunion, gave an account of the money received and announced that over $60 had already been contributed towards the class gift to the high school and that the fund was not closed. The money is to be added to the principal of the Charles D. Meserve Fund for scholarships for boys, enabling them to go to the college of their choice.

A bunch of flowers in a container was given to the member of the class with the most grandchildren—Mabel (Curtis) Tomlinson, John G. Andrews, Louis O. Tilton.

The committee in charge were George W. Pratt (chairman), Fanny Garrison (secretary), D. Leighton Ordway (treasurer), Sarah Bates, Mabel (Curtis) Tomlinson, Grace (Shepardson) Kuntz, John G. Andrews, Louis O. Tilton.

They were Priscilla (Alden) Blakemore, Olive (Allen) Washburn, Eudora (Bassett) Brown, Sarah Bates, Grace (Cahill) Carey, Frances (Chamberlin) Brand, Carolyn (Childs) Haslam, Mabel (Curtis) Tomlinson, Alice Costello, Emma Edmunds, Julia Enegees, Fanny Garrison, Elizabeth (Loring) Weston, Elizabeth Nickerson, Helen Partridge, Alice (Sampson) Flaman, Grace (Shepardson) Kuntz, Edith (Smith) Warren, Andrews, William Bent, Clarence Brown, Charles Cumming, Frank Fitzpatrick, Alfred Fuller, Ernest Greene, Clarence Haskell, Albert Higgins, Gordon Marble, George Maynard, D. come laundered at National Diato have their babies enjoy having this modern help to comfort.

Gallons and gallons of hot water, sustained temperatures of 170° for long periods, soaps of special formulas for diaper washing, and then the soft, fluffying in superheated air until every diaper is a bellow of comfort for baby. Every care for baby's safety and happiness.

coming to our community with a

Cancer Fund Drive Lacks $3300 for Goal In Newton

Only $3300 more toward the American Cancer Society's fund-raising campaign is needed now to bring Newton's contributions up to its goal of $15,000. Dr. Charles A. Lamb, chairman of the Newton Committee of the American Cancer Society, expressed himself pleased with the enthusiastic response to date, and felt confident that citizens of Newton will come through with the remaining $3300. Lee Day in starting the campaign accounts for the fact that the quota is not yet filled.

PEGGY FENN

Wellesley Character Actress Is Veteran

Talented Peggy Fenn, character actress at the Wellesley Summer Theatre, has come long way from the school plays and church pageants in which she got her start. Since she was the minister's daughter, little Peggy always got a part in the town's productions, and fortunately her father understood and was sympathetic to her desire to be an actress.

Her first big chance came when she was selected from among 250 others as winner of a scholarship to the Bonstelle Dramatic School in Detroit. After this, she played two years in "tent shows," perhaps not the most comfortable life for a young actress, but it gave Peggy a chance to play many different character parts from Mrs. Jones in "Lightenin'" to Ann, the half-way in "Outward Bound."

Shortly after this the Federal Theatre opened in Detroit and Peggy abandoned her character parts to play ingenue leads, among which were Julie in "Lilac," Amity in "Road to Rome," Anna in "Anna Christie," and Sister Joanna in "Cradle Song."

For a while after the Federal Theatre closed, Peggy tried free lancing, doing some radio work, making commercial movies, and catching what stage parts would come her way. During this time she played with Charlotte Greenwood in "Leaning on Letty" and toured with Fred Stone in "You Can't Take It With You."

Right now she is getting used to civilian dresses again and fervently hopes that none of her roles at the Wellesley Summer Theatre will call for uniforms. We can't exactly blame her.

40th Anniversary to Be Observed at Svgs. Bank Life Ins. Dinner

Edward F. McClenen will be the principal speaker at a dinner on the fortieth anniversary of the date of establishment of Savings Bank Life Insurance in Massachusetts to be held at the Parker House, Boston, at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, June 26, it is announced by Clyde S. Casady, executive vice president of the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council.

Mr. McClenen, a member of the Boston law firm of Nutter, McClenen and Fish, was for some years law partner of the late Louis D. Brandeis, former Justice of the United States Supreme Court and "father" of the plan for providing low-cost life insurance through the savings bank.

The meeting will be in charge of William B. Snow, Jr., president of the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council and of the Suffolk Savings Bank, Boston. Among the guests will be Lincoln Filene, close friend of Justice Brandeis and former chairman of the Savings Bank Insurance League, and representatives of the Commonwealth.

About 400 savings bank trustees, officers and employees and representatives of labor and industry are expected to attend.

In an historical booklet commemorating the anniversary, the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council points out that $315,000 of low-cost savings bank life insurance is now in force throughout the commonwealth.

These inquiries are sent to the proper Red Cross society abroad, a search for the person is instigated, and a report returned to the inquirer.

Mr. Schipper pointed out that at the present time this service does not include inquiries about persons in Germany as it has not been possible to make proper arrangements.

Home Service in the Newton Chapter will be glad to give complete information about this service and assist in preparing an inquiry to be sent overseas.

Mr. Thomas F. Ellis, 55 Fairlee road, who was recently appointed manager of the Burroughs Adding Machine Co., Bridgeport, Conn., will move with his family to Westport, Conn. at the end of the school year. Mr. Ellis has been with the Boston office of the Burroughs Co. for more than 20 years and assumed his new duties on May 1. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis have two children, Patricia Ann, 10; and Thomas F. Plan E Not for City of Newton Asserts Prominent Attorney

Arthur Blakemore, Former Alderman, Issues Statement on City Mgr. and P.R. Provisions of Much-Discussed Charter

Plan E in Newton

By ARTHUR W. BLAKEMORE

There is a movement on foot in Newton to adopt the so-called Plan E system of government, and the first thing the voters should know is what it means. Plan E was framed by the Statute of 1938, Chapter 378, and consists of two entirely disconnected provisions—one for a City Manager and the other for so-called Proportional Representation or limited voting. Both plans have been tried before in this country with varying results, dependent on local conditions. The question is whether this form of election and government would work in Newton.

Plan E would make Newton a bureaucracy with a City Council of seven, elected at large, which Council shall elect a Mayor who shall be Chairman of the City Council and Chairman of the School Committee and have no power to veto, but the same power as any other member to vote. The Mayor would have no power of appointment except of the Mayor's secretary and clerks and in some cases to fill vacancies. The members of the City Council would have a salary not exceeding $4,000 and the Mayor would receive an additional salary not exceeding $1,000. The City Council appoints a City Manager responsible for the administration of all departments, commissions, boards and offices, who need not be a resident of the City or Commonwealth, and holds office during the pleasure of the City Council and is to have a salary not exceeding $20,000. No member of the City Council and no person who has within two years had any public experience by serving in any elective office in the City or County or Commonwealth shall be chosen as City Manager. It is the duty of the City Manager to supervise the administration of all the affairs of the City, to prepare budgets and to make all appointments and removals in the departments. He shall have the powers possessed formerly by the Mayor, Board of Aldermen and all other boards, commissions and committees, except the School Committee, who shall have the management and conduct of the public schools and of the property pertaining thereto.

Those who want to "clean up" the street department can do it easily under our present city charter. There is considerable dissatisfaction today with the condition of the streets which is probably due in part to war conditions and the difficulty of obtaining help and materials. Section 14, Art. V of our Charter now contains a clear provision for the consolidation of the street department and the water department when approved by a referendum to the voters. Those who think such departments should be combined under one head as a department of public works may accomplish this readily under our present charter without adopting Plan E. These two departments do largely the same type of work and there might well be efficiency and savings in their consolidation, to avoid some duplication of machinery and personnel.

Newton is a City of some fifteen separate villages and the election of a small Council of seven at large would necessarily leave many villages without any representation at all and would probably confine the City Council to the larger areas in the City. Our present system with the election of ward aldermen was created in an attempt to give all sections of the City fair representation, which would be destroyed by the new plan.

I have been interested in Newton city government for over fifty years and served for six years on the Board of Aldermen, the last two years as President of the Board, and can claim an intimate knowledge of how our city government has worked.

The City has built during the past seventy-five years an efficient water system, sewer system, school system, public buildings and highways, all without a breath of scandal during that long period until the past year.

The Board of Aldermen, as I knew it, both before and since my time has been composed of honest, hard working men who have done, their best for the City and have accomplished a marvelous piece of work. These men made important decisions like that of the integrated high school and building of the Newton boulevard, which were wise and well done under our system of government, which has worked so well for so many years. The city government has a right to be proud of the location and appearance of our new City Hall.

The idea of paying a salary to councilmen seems to me abhorrent, as it would attract the more undesirable candidates who need the money, while the men we need in our city government are not the type of men who are willing to undertake a political campaign to get a salary from the City.

Over thirty years ago, there was a movement on foot for a Greater Boston and the Newton Board of Aldermen, on the basis of my report on the advantages of local self-government, led the successful fight to keep the identity of Newton as we had known it and not to put it in the control of Boston politicians as we knew them. One of my best arguments in speeches which I made during this campaign was the comparison of street costs on the Boston side of Commonwealth Avenue and the Newton

Consider Your Pets When You Go Away

If you plan to move or to go on a vacation, please give forethought to whatever arrangement you intend to make for the care of any pet you may have, dog, cat, bird, or other animal.

Animals, cats in particular, have an uncanny sense of detecting any disruption of their normal routine. They may leave home or hide, then cannot be found when the family is ready to close the house; consequently, they are left behind to become strays or otherwise exposed to cruelty. Contrary to the belief held by many persons, domestic animals are not equipped to take care of themselves; they are dependent upon man to whom they look for protection.

If your pet is to be boarded while you are away, be sure you select a proper place well in advance. If he is to be taken with you, keep the animal in the house or under control while out-of-doors when it is nearing time for your departure so that he will not be "among the missing" when you leave. If the only alternative is humane disposition, take or send him to the nearest animal welfare organization.

We believe most cases of abandonment of animals are unintentional, due principally to delay in making the necessary arrangements. Please make plans far enough in advance this year to assure proper care of your pet.

Advertising Cuts Cost of Goods

The use of advertising as a distribution tool to lower the cost of American products is advocated by Jay D. Runkle, chairman of the board of the National Retail Dry Goods Association and vice president and general manager of Crowley, Milner & Co., a Detroit department store.

In a talk before a convention of the Advertising Federation of America in Boston, Runkle asserted that over the long range prices were being brought down through mass distribution methods.

"It must be remembered," he said, "that there can be no mass production without a corresponding mass distribution. Mass consumer demand can be created only through advertising and sales promotion. Mass distribution is unthinkable without advertising. But many people seem to think that if we did away with advertising we could reduce the prices of merchandise.

"Rather than reduce the prices of merchandise, the elimination of advertising would greatly increase the prices on merchandise that consumers would have to pay. Advertising is absolutely essential to our modern society to keep our economic machinery running."

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note).

City Election

Almost six months ago, on January 2 to be exact, I decided it might be worthwhile to start stirring up a little interest in the coming Mayoralty campaign. Accordingly, I ran a column in which were listed twelve sets of initials of prominent Newton citizens. The question was asked, "Who are these men and what is it that they have in common?" A carton of cigarettes was offered to the first man or woman who sent in the correct answers. Two special delivery letters were the first replies received at my home. They came from Alderman William R. Mattson and President of the Board Joseph B. Jamieson, Jr. The former won by a half-hour and enjoyed his free smokes.

Now to the point. Not long after this column appeared, Hugh S. Boyd, lawyer of Newton Corner announced his candidacy for Mayor. Fairly soon after, Alderman Theodore R. Lockwood made his announcement. Then, on June 5, Roy S. Edwards made his long-awaited statement to the press. All three were included in the set of twelve initials published on Jan. 2, 1947. Then, on June 12, in another paper, two other men whose initials appeared in my original column were mentioned as "still seriously considering the matter." (The Mayoralty.) The two men were former Alderman Dennis M. Cronin and Wilfred Chagnon, proprietor of the Hubbard Drug Company.

We now have five men out of the twelve either definitely in the race for Mayor or else reported as "seriously considering the matter." Considering how little I had to go on at New Year's, that wasn't a bad guess, was it?

This week I will toss in another set of initials - H.I.M. A little bird tells me that this man will very likely have something important to say within two months, possibly even earlier. If and when this man enters the race, it will be the first man outside my original list of twelve prominent citizens.

It might be interesting to some of you if a few brief comments are made with reference to the progress of the campaign, to date.

In closing, it is my belief that if the election should be held to

side, and I believe that comparison still holds, from what I read in the newspapers about the present government of Boston.

The idea that the Mayor's office should be a full time job seems to me to overlook the provisions of the City Charter on the duties of the Mayor. Do not forget that under our Charter the Mayor does not construct or repair or clean the streets personally or build buildings, but the system which has worked so well is for him to appoint men to do that work and then let them do it without political interference of any kind. The Mayors I have known were able, honest men engaged in large affairs, who ran the City under our system by appointing competent reliable men as heads of the departments. No competent man engaged in large affairs can be expected to drop his business and give his full time as Mayor of the City temporarily for a small salary or for any salary the City could pay.

The other portion of Plan E is the so-called Proportional Representation or limited ballot under which your vote can be counted for your first choice only if he needs it. This system has been found unconstitutional by some state Supreme Courts, and it took our Court thirty-two pages to finally find that with its many complications it was valid in the Cambridge case. It has failed in Cleveland and Trenton and other cities. It succeeded in Cambridge where its Mayor went to jail.

This system has worked well in some places and not in others, and its chief argument has been the overthrowing of a corrupt political machine, and doing away with city primaries. That argument cannot possibly be used in Newton where we never had a corrupt political machine and where we have not now a direct primary and party designations on the ballot but have the preferential system, which was adopted in 1916 and has worked well ever since. I can claim to be chiefly responsible for this system adopted as the Statute of 1916. The reason I did it is because the old party primaries had become a farce under the direct primary. I first ran for the Board of Aldermen in 1909 with three opponents, and running at large I received the overwhelming vote of 364 in the primary and won the election because there was no Democratic candidate. The preferential system has since done away with the ridiculous party primaries and with party designations on the ballot and leaves any man with freedom to submit his merits to the voters at one election, which is final.

Professor F. A. Hermans in his book Modern Politics says that the P. R. System was used by Hitler and Mussolini to get Nazi and Fascist minorities into local office. It came from Europe in 1915 and the national and state Socialist parties at once sponsored it.

Plan E provides in Section 115 that the registers of voters shall count the ballots in any way that was in effect under P. R. in any City in the United States on January 1, 1938, which provision, I am afraid, would present quite a problem to our able board of registers of voters. So, if we adopt this system we shall not even know how the ballots are to be counted. All we do know is that the results may well depend on the accident of which ballots are counted first.

For the reasons above stated, I believe very strongly that Plan E is not at all fitted to the requirements of the City of Newton and hope that our present system, which has worked so well for so many years, will not be discarded. We are justly proud of our outstanding city government and school system and it should not be disintegrated now by placing so much in the hands of one bureaucrat. That has been tried in Washington and it does not work so well as our Massachusetts system of local self-government, under which we have done so well in the past.

B.C. Football Coach Addresses Kiwanis-Rotary Meeting

Introduced by William Duffy, Wednesday, Denny Myers, coach of the Boston college football team, informed members of the Newton Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, at their joint noon meeting in the Y.M.C.A., of a football coach's problems, tribulations, joys and of the psychology applied on various occasions during the winning of important gridiron battles.

Meyers, one of the most enjoyable and informative speakers, rocked his audience with laughter throughout his rib-tickling talk on the manner in which his various teams won and lost football games. His comment on the hillbilly's account of his first game, as a spectator, was voted a classic . . . as was his yarn concerning the "Man From the Bureau" who accompanied the first wave of an assaulting party, commanded by Myers, on a Jap held Pacific atoll.

Moving pictures of high school and college games reveal the individual player's ability and his weaknesses, according to the team, coach and himself, he declared. "Gill Dobie," he continued, "said that good players contribute 75 per cent of a coach's success—the coach 25 percent."

"Newton's a good city to live in," he concluded, "I lived here once, myself, on Hunnewell circle—can't get back, however, no-

Auburndale Youth Program Concludes Successful Season

The Auburndale Youth Program will complete its first year and a half of supervised sports and play activity on June 14 when the local lads will participate in the City Gra-Y track meet to be held at the Newton YMCA. This event will conclude a most successful sports program in Auburndale until fall, when new plans will go into effect to include an even larger number of boys.

95 Auburndale boys, in age from 7 to 13, have participated in the seasonal athletic and recreational program which has been sponsored by village citizens and directed by the Community Program department of the YMCA. The "Indian Gra-Y" (the "Gra" is an abbreviation of Grade) provided activity for the 7 and 8 year old boys, of which there were 20 in this group. There were 33 boys in the "Burr Gra-Y" and 28 in the "Williams Gra-Y" programs, which drew the interest of the 4th, 5th and 6th graders. A smaller group of 14 boys comprised the "Junior Hi-Y's" who were slightly older boys from both schools.

The program has included some swimming for the younger boys, and several trips to the waterfront with a visit to the U. S. S. Constitution, and a beach party at Duxbury for both parents and boys. This was outside of the regular seasonal sports program of football in the fall, basketball in the winter, and baseball during the spring months. The basketball program was made possible last winter through the great kindness of the Rev. Stephen Callender, rector of the Centenary Methodist Church, who made the church recreational room available, thus providing supervised indoor sports during the winter months.

In thus providing a vent for juvenile energy, the Youth Program of Auburndale has been a source of satisfaction in accomplishment by the boys themselves and the sponsors of this program, of which Richard A. Winslow of Pigeon Hill road is chairman. All local citizens interested in the youth of their town may give financial support to this worthwhile and successful program by buying a $2, $5, or $10 membership, each one of which provide also special privileges at the Y. W. I. W. A. Clarke of 59 Woodland road is the treasurer.

Under the direct supervision of Mr. William S. Bungard, of the Y. M. C. A., the following graduates and undergraduates of Harvard and Boston University have ably provided leadership, acted as coaches and, in short, conducted this whole sports program: George Gaudreault, George Hyland, George Dennett, John Nahigan, Eugene Clark Jr., and Frank A. Day, III.

Legion Post to Hear About Plan E

The pros and cons of the Plan E city manager-city councillor form of government for the City of Newton will be discussed Thursday evening June 19th before members of the American Legion Post 48, Memorial Building at City Hall.

Former Alderman Carroll J. Hoffman, Chairman of the Newton Plan E Committee which is circulating petitions for signatures of voters to bring the question of its acceptance before the electorate at the next election will speak for the plan. A series of neighborhood discussions on the subject are being arranged for the final drive for the approximately 4,000 signatures necessary to get the question on the ballot.

The committee last night stressed the fact that it is only interested at the present in getting the question on the ballot so that the voters may decide whether they wish this type of government.

Active workers obtaining signatures are Frank A. Andersen of 411 Brookline Avenue, Oak Hill, Clyde S. Casady of 75 Devonshire road, Waban. Mrs. William Harber, president of the League of Women Voters; Mrs. John B. Stetson, Mrs. David Post, Donald Dana, McKay, Mrs. H. C. Madge Evans at Boston Summer Theatre June 23

John Huntington and Lee Falk announce that they will open the second season of their air-conditioned Boston Summer Theatre in New England Mutual Hall on the Monday evening of June 23rd with a production of Maxwell Anderson's great new play "Joan of Lorraine" starring lovely Madge Evans in the title role.

"Joan of Lorraine" has been hailed by critics and public alike as the finest play Maxwell Anderson has ever written. Its recent spectacular Broadway success would seem to confirm this theatre especially in view of the fact that the play broke all comparable box office records in theatrical history. Messrs. Huntington and Falk also report that they have assembled an excellent supporting cast for the production which will run for two weeks at this air-conditioned theatre with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday through the Saturday evening of July 5th and then go to the Cambridge

Newton Taxpayers Association, Inc. Views All Plans for City Government

(This is the first of a series of eight factual data articles on city government brought to you by the Association in the interest of better government.—Editor)

COMMON INTEREST Your Government and Mine

By DANA P. BLAKE, Director

The topic of current interest these days and for days to come until the Fall Elections are over, is "Should Newton change its form of Government. If so, to what Plan?"

During the administration of the late Senator David I. Walsh as Governor of Massachusetts (1915) when Calvin W. Coolidge was President of the Senate, and Hon. Channing Cox Speaker of the House, the General Court enacted what is now Chapter 43, which sets forth the Plans of City Government which could be adopted by the cities throughout the Commonwealth, replacing their existing charters which are referred to as "Special Enactments" by the General Court. These are Plans A, B, C, and D. In order to provide for proportional representation (the so-called Hare System) Plan E was enacted by the Legislature in 1938 to supplement plan D.

A study of these plans reveals that forces are constantly at work trying to bring about betterment in government, and make possible the grant of charters which fit the particular needs of progressive cities and towns. People have been prone to forget that a community grows just as they do — sometimes in spite of themselves. Suddenly a community wakes up to the fact it has outgrown its form of government; other times it takes the happening of something drastic, a physical or moral disaster — to make the citizens cognizant of the fact that the suit now worn by its civic government is ripped and torn at the seams, its resources seeping out and undesirable elements filtering in.

Has that happened to Newton? Is Newton suffering from political ills? Does the present charter of Newton need to be changed? Is the political framework of our city government such as to attract public spirited, capable and trained men to seek public office? These are some of the questions that the citizens are now called upon to answer. Their answer must be ready by fall. Meanwhile, to arrive at an intelligent decision, the voter must not only inform himself as to the history of past administrations, and appraise the results, but, if he decides that the remedy must be more than a change of personnel, then he must study the Plans offered by Chapter 43 and determine which type of charter should be sought. He will keep present in his mind, the question — Which Plan offers the right tools to the right men to give to the City the efficiency in government desired by its citizens?

Plan A—the Strong Mayor-Council?

Plan B—he Weak Mayor-Council?

Plan C—the Commission?

Plan D—City Manager-Council?

Plan E—City Manager-Council elected by Proportional Representation?

And, in addition to the prestige these men will receive as public officials, what salary should they receive? Running the business of a city, which includes Newton, should not be a matter of hobby or avocation. Still, many qualified and able citizens cannot afford to take part and let us see why.

Plans A, B, C, and D were approved by the Legislature in 1915. Under Plans A and B the salaries of the Mayor and the Councillors were pegged not to exceed $5,000 and $500 per year respectively; Plan C, the Councillors, $4,000; Plan D, the Mayor $3,000, Councillors $750 and the City Manager, such as may be fixed by the Council.

So that for over 30 years no legislative change has been made in these salaries in spite of the rise in the cost of living index. Plan E which was approved in 1938 took this into consideration, and undoubtedly the amount of time which was required of the officials, so that the Councillors may receive up to $4,000 and the City Manager up to $20,000.

However, the voter should not be influenced in his or her decision by the fact that Plan E more adequately compensates the officials, because the Legislature can remedy the salary deficiencies in Plans A, B, C, and D.

IN THIS ARTICLE A BRIEF RESUME OF EACH PLAN AND A FEW PROS AND CONS WILL BE GIVEN, TO BE FOLLOWED BY MORE DETAILED ARTICLES OVER THE COMING WEEKS.

PLAN A, the Strong Mayor-Council Plan, is non-partisan with 9 Councillors elected at large. The whip powers are given to the Mayor, power of appointment, removal and veto. This plan is based on the principle that the concentration of power leads to a concentration of responsibility. It has proved superior to PLAN B, the Weak-Mayor-Council Plan, for a study of the records indicates that under Plan A a Mayor has shown a great sense of responsibility for planning and formulating policies, and securing support for such policies. However, the record also shows that because the office is elective, it is not always won by the man best qualified. And the record shows, too, that when mayors of the superior administrative type happen to get elected, they are often turned down subsequently because they lack "political instinct."

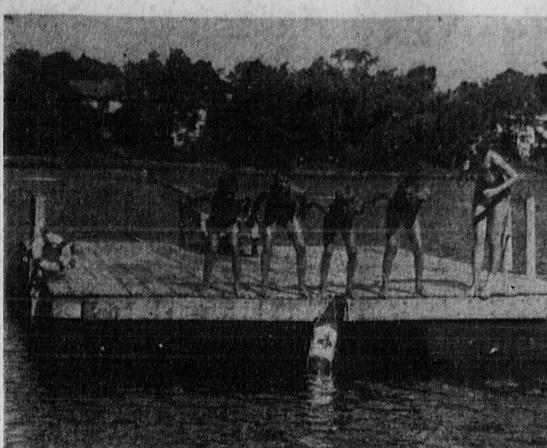

PLAN B gives all the whip powers to the Council who thus have to assume the responsibility for the kind of government the city gets. Under this Plan the Councillors are elected by wards. Naturally Councillors are more inclined to work for their own ward interests rather than those of the city as a whole, as is the case when elections are at large.

Under both plans the city council controls the purse and can use that power to hamstring the mayor's course of action.

Under both plans the records of the cities display mediocrity in both men and machinery and results. Plans A and B are patterned on the Federal system of 'checks and balance' of powers.

Prizes on Display At Kiwanis Newton Corner Circus Office

Two years ago, the Newton Kiwanis Club sponsored a Sunday afternoon and evening concert by the famous drummer king, Gene Krupa, at Norumbega Park, Auburndale. The proceeds on the concert added to the Kiwanis Club's "Underprivileged Child Fund", was used, later in the season, to install a modern fire alarm system at the New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children, Oak Hill, Newton Centre.

At this time, in the interest of their respective "Underprivileged Child Funds", 15 Greater Boston Kiwanis Clubs are sponsoring the gigantic Kiwanis Circus to be held at Suffolk Downs, August 18 through the 24th. Thousands of prizes, including six automobiles, will be given away to purchasers of the admission tickets now on sale. In each book of 24 tickets, five eligible for prizes may be presented for identification at the Newton Kiwanis Club's Circus Office, 342 Centre street, Newton Corner, where awards including airplane luggage, pressure cookers, 74 piece silverware sets, electric clocks, life size dolls, lamps, electric broilers and hundreds of other prizes are on display and will be distributed promptly.

The holder of an admission ticket becomes eligible for every one of the several thousand prizes. The purchaser of one book, immediately has a choice of several hundred additional prizes.

National Service Life Insurance

During their period of service in the armed forces, more than 15 million veterans purchased approximately 150 billion dollars of National Service Life Insurance. To the majority this was probably their first introduction to the benefits of life insurance.

During wartime, a person usually recognizes the uncertainty of life, but feels there are few hazards connected with civil life. Statistics have proved that death in accidents alone in this country totalled more than the death casualties in the service.

A veteran's economic value to his family doesn't vary materially when he changes from uniform to civvies and drops the rifle to pick up the reins of a business career. He is still the bread winner. So each veteran on discharge is immediately confronted with the problem of deciding what to do with his GI insurance—how much to keep, how much to convert, what policy to own.

Only the veteran himself can answer all those questions. It is agreed, however, by insurance experts of commercial companies, that government insurance is the best life insurance buy available, and that every veteran should own as much as he can afford on the plan best suited to his needs. Newton veterans who have allowed this valuable insurance protection to lapse are urged to contact their Veterans Administration at 277 Washington street, Newton, and reinstate at least a portion of their original insurance.

The wise young man of today does not let such an insurance bargain slip through his fingers.

Politics With Color
by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Labor Bill Becomes Law

Most people will agree that Mr. Truman's defeat in his frantic efforts to block the Taft-Hartley labor bill marks the dawn of a new era in national politics and in the field of management-labor relations in this country. The immediate repercussions, of course, are very disturbing. The quick wave of sit-down strikes makes one uneasy. However, there was bound to be a complete show-down somewhere along the line and it might as well come now as at any other time.

If you stop to look at the entire picture, going way back to the early days of the New Deal and the beginnings of the Roosevelt reign at Washington, you will realize that day of reckoning was inevitable. For over a decade we have witnessed the disgraceful spectacle of a small and utterly ruthless minority in this country—the machine built up by selfish labor leaders—telling our President and the rest of the country just what could and could not be done by the occupant of the White House or by Congress. Sit-down strikes, regular strikes, wild-cat strikes and the like have plagued us all. We have never known when the vast majority of the sovereign people of the United States would be allowed to eat or keep warm or have light or cooking facilities or anything else. For so-called free country this has been a ghastly tragedy. Had it continued much longer we would have become a helpless people, tossed about at the whim of John L. Lewis and other men with a similar disregard for law and order and fair play. Now, viewing surface conditions, it would seem as tho' the much-abused people of this land might get a fair shake.

Another point. We hear a great deal from President Truman and the various labor leaders about the necessity for national unity. Certainly we need unity. However, does it always have to mean kow-towing to the big labor bosses? Can't we ever mean kow-towing to the great rank and file, the white-collar worker, (completely lost in the shuffle during the entire Roosevelt regime) and all the other elements which are NOT part of the labor movement? Is it not the responsibility of President Truman to see to it that these various unorganized elements get a decent break once in a while? Mutt that over, please.

Next week I shall consider the probable effect of the over-riding of the President's veto on his own political fortunes. Does it mean that he is all washed-up politically or does it mean that he has now got the labor veto in his vest-pocket for 1948? Without it he is very likely "sunk without trace."

Governor Bradford

Taxpayers Association—

which type prevents, at least, a poor personnel from making too many serious blunders.

PLAN C, the Commission Plan, was one of the first reform plans with a business aspect. The governing body is the City Council consisting of five members, each of whom head, or is the Commissioner of one of the administrative branches. The Council legislates and administers their laws. Although this Plan has been found to work well in the smaller cities and towns, in larger cities this has not held true. The trouble seems to stem from two sources — (1) amateurs have been placed in charge of administrative work (2) the absence of a single responsible head, so that when friction develops among the commissioners, or the commissioners and the mayor, the failure of cooperation has worked to the detriment of the city.

PLAN D was an outgrowth of C, and designed to remedy the weaknesses of Plan C. Analogies were drawn from other fields in formulating the council-manager plan, which provides for a small council elected at large under the majority system, and the Council appoints the City-Manager. The City Manager holds his office at the pleasure of the council. This is a good feature in that if he does not measure up to the qualifications required of him by the position, the city is not saddled. On the other hand the uncertainty of tenure is the problem to overcome in attracting men to the position when more attractive offers are made by private industry.

The success of the Council-Manager plan depends in large part upon the type of person elected for the council. In the appointment of the manager, in the determination of policies and in cooperation given the manager, the council holds the key to the success or failure of the Manager Plan.

PLAN E is the City Manager Plan with proportional representation tacked on as a method of voting. Both elective bodies, Council and School Committee, are elected by proportional representation.

Proportional Representation was developed from the Hare system which came out of England about a hundred years ago, but has made very slow progress in this country. Ashtabula, Ohio, was the first to adopt it in 1915, and repealed it in 1929. Cleveland adopted it in 1921 and repealed it in 1931. The cities and towns where it is in use at the present time can be counted on the fingers of your hands. Yonkers, New York, a town, has a movement afoot for repeal.

The object of PR is to secure representation for all groups and shades of opinion, rather than for the majority and not to "Waste" a ballot. The outstanding weaknesses and drawbacks in the marking of the ballots, and the counting and transfer of surplus ballots.

In the selection of a city council there is the question not only of how to select a council which will be a cross section of the city, but also of how to select one of integrity and ability, and which really represents the choice of the people. Electing typical citizens is not so important as electing capable persons. Under this Hare system the candidates for the council are nominated by petition requiring only 50 signatures. No primary is required. (This is not new to Newton because under our present charter none is required.) Chance luck starts to play (1) in the drawing of lots for the order in which the ballots by precincts are to be counted, and (2) the pouring-over operations in the transfer of surplus ballots after a candidate has made his "quota." Chance luck will defeat a popular candidate.

Although the marking of the ballot by choices is not difficult to understand, still it has been found that many invalid ballots are cast, and this fact cannot be overlooked. The percentage of invalid ballots in Cleveland under PR was 7.7% in 1923; 7.9 in 1925; 10.4% in 1927, and 5.1% in 1929. In Ashtabula it varied from 3% to 13.5%.

As to the voter really understanding the course his ballot takes, the Supreme Court of Michigan had this to say:

"An actuary, mathematically skilled in the application of the doctrines of chances to financial and other affairs, might work with confidence upon the possibilities of this system, but to the non-expert . . . it appears too intricate and tedious to be adopted for popular elections by the people." To the average elector the destiny of his vote is a mystery, however easy it may be for him to follow instructions in marking his ballot."

Plan E—P. R. and P. W. C. or what have you?

The joke is that I THINK I recognize the hand-writing. What's wrong with signing your name, old man? Both men are quite well-known and might conceivably have ambitions to run for Mayor. However, I would be much more impressed if they would tell me about it personally.

Letter to Editor

Editor, Newton Graphic:
I have read Arthur W. Blakemore's letter in last week's issue on the subject of Plan E for Newton. I assume that his purpose in writing at this time is in opposition to having the question appear as a referendum at the November election. More recently than his six years membership on the Board of Aldermen, I have served eight years (1933-1941) and am prompted to make a few observations.

I think it is proper and in the democratic way to give the voters the opportunity of expressing their opinion and accordingly have urged present proponents and opponents to sign the petition. Debate on the merits of the plan can await the securing of the necessary 4300 signatures. Moreover, all arguments pro or con at this time will be forgotten during the next five months.

Whereas I am actively working for Plan E, I do not like it in its entirety, and concur with Mr. Blakemore in two of his objections. I definitely favor a City Manager for Newton. Under present law Newton can have only one by adopting either Plan D or Plan E, and the latter seems more desirable.

I am opposed to the provision permitting the councilors voting themselves salaries. I do not believe we will attract as able candidates as under the present gratuitous public-service system. I am opposed to the Proportional Representation Voting, partly because I cannot understand its complexities, but principally because our present preferential voting has been satisfactory.

Therefore, I cherish the hope and conviction that the legislature will be sympathetic and act favorably upon a request from the City of Newton to expunge those two conditions. So far I have found unanimity on these points with everyone I have.

Plan E is adopted next November, it would not become operative until January 1, 1950. During the next two years the legislature can be petitioned to streamline Plan E to meet the majority wishes of our voters.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

The Fourth of July, our nation's most glorious holiday is one of its most costly celebrations, being paid for each year with lives and destroyed property. Much of this loss is due directly to the improper use of fireworks.

It is noteworthy that here in Newton the use of fireworks has been restricted, this has greatly reduced both the accidents to people and fire losses to property. There are however, many people who still secure fireworks from outside sources and so we are still confronted with hazards attending them.

Few people realize the explosive force that many of the fireworks contain. Many of the ingredients contained in the manufacture of fireworks are essential in the compounding of ammunition. They possess both fire and explosive hazards. Infection may set in if any of these substances get into a cut or open wound unless the necessary precautions are taken at the time.

If you do happen to have some fire crackers that you are going to use, here are a few simple rules to remember while handling them:

Do not allow any small children to handle or play with any type of fire works unless there is some older person present. Show the children how to handle them correctly and safely, thus preventing injury to themselves.

Do not throw fire crackers in the air where there are buildings close at hand. They might lodge in some part of the building and start a fire without your noticing it.

Never under any consideration throw or allow fire crackers to be thrown at anyone. This might cause painful injuries or even the loss of their eyesight.

Store all types of fireworks away from all open lights, high temperatures and in a place where there is not too much moisture and children cannot have easy access. Moisture may cause spontaneous ignition due to the ingredients. Keep the fire works in a metal container with the cover closed.

If we will all do our part to handle whatever types of fireworks correctly we will be doing a lot toward keeping our families and homes safe. It is our patriotic duty to make it a safe and sane holiday now so that we will not have any regrets on the Fifth of July.

The next meeting will be held July 11, 1947.

street, Ward 3, also described as r-852 Watertown street, Ward 3; 60,000 gallons to be in three underground tanks, and 1000 gallons of gasoline in underground tank for use in business. The petition was again opposed by Probation Officer M. John Ene- gess, an abutter, who stated that the site was improperly described in the petition and he also ob- jected to the dangerous situa- tion which would be caused with 60,000 gallons of oil in the rear of his property. George N. Mc- Neil who spoke in favor of grant- ing the petition stated that less than 3 days' supply of oil can be stored in this city and that Newton would be in dire straits should a national shortage arise. A letter was received from the West Newton Business Men's Association favoring the petition. The matter was referred to the Franchises and Licenses com- mittee.

A petition of the Common- wealth of Massachusetts to keep, store and use 1000 gallons of gas- oiline at 2401 Commonwealth ave- nue, Ward 4 for use on the M.D.C. boats was granted, no one having appeared in opposi- tion.

The petition of John Donnelly and Sons for a permit to erect a wooden and iron sign, 25 ft. long by 12 ft. high on the roof of the building at 238-248 Washington street, Ward 7 was granted by the Board.

A public hearing was held on the petition for acceptance of Chapter 576, Acts of 1946, which would increase the pensions of those firemen and policemen who would not benefit by the State Retirement Act for city employees which is to go into effect July 1, and which provides for a 15 percent increase in the pensions of members of the department who retire after 35 years of service. Capt. Wm. C. Fanning of the Fire Department and John J. Mullen of the police Department, both spoke in favor of acceptance of the petition.

At the request of A. Leslie Moriarty and others for a hearing on the acceptance of the provisions of Chapter 559, Acts of 1946 relative to an increase in the pension of former city employees, the Board will hold a public hearing on the matter on Monday, July 21. The in- crease, if granted, would also benefit the older men who would not be aided by the new law.

Four other petitions were held in committee following public hearings, three to keep, store and use gasoline and another for license to erect and use a 4 car garage.

The Board approved renewals of auctioneer licenses for J. Oll- er Daly, 42 Brae Burn road, West Newton, and Richard R. MacMillan, 33 Highland avenue, Newtonville. Certificates of incorporation were approved for Stanley H. Martin, and William G. Howard of 21 Ithaca circle, Auburndale. John J. Valukis, 18 William street, Newton Upper Falls, was granted a junk col- lector's license and a second hand articles dealer's license was given to Wilmot A. Nash, 71-73 Union street, Newton Centre.

The request of Mildred B. Kred- enser of Boston for a permit to collect second hand articles only was refused by the Board.

Several pole locations were granted the Edison Co. and the Telephone Company and the Board validated the location of poles on Needham street, near Oak street, Ward 5, which have been in place for some time.

Rotary Club

Hon. Donald W. Nicholson, President of the Massachusetts Senate, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Newton Ro- tary Club on Monday at the Brae- burn.

Mr. Nicholson spoke on the problems before the Massachusetts General Court, the major legislation remaining involving Labor and Taxation, there being many bills on both issues under consideration by the various committees of both Houses. "The chief labor legislation," he stated, "is to prohibit labor from striking in industries involved with public health and safety."

He stressed the importance of sound tax laws, saying "We have reached the end of more taxes on real estate. Costs are up, more services are demanded by the people, better salaries are need- ed. The additional costs should not be levied against homes and tangible property." He expressed strong approval of the Governor's program for a two per cent tax as being fair and providing broader participation in the support of necessary governmental and educational services.
